Dear Friend,

I would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to the 2018 Annual Gala Benefit Dinner Dance. Tonight it is our pleasure to recognize some of New Jersey's most prominent Italian American citizens for their outstanding contributions.

As our organization celebrates more than thirty years of service to the citizens of New Jersey, we can reflect on our record of tremendous achievements as an organization. We have collectively raised hundreds of thousands of dollars for charity and the support of students and law enforcement officers. Our organization has been instrumental in the formation of several Italian American law enforcement associations throughout our nation, and has helped shape many groups within our state. Our organization has cemented long time relationships with many of the state's elected officials to effectively make our voices heard. Most importantly our membership has grown into a huge family of proud Italian Americans. Finally, our organization continues to make its mark on the New Jersey law enforcement community. I know that the next thirty years will be even better for us!

This past year has been another very successful year for the Italian American Police Society of New Jersey. Our membership continues to grow and we remain the state's largest police fraternal organization. During the past year, the Society has held a number of very successful social and cultural events. Our Foundation continues to make our organization able to provide funding and support for various area charities. We continue to be a Platinum Sponsor of the Law Enforcement Torch Run for Special Olympics. I would like to thank our Executive Director Vincent Nardone for leading the organization's fund raising efforts which help fulfill our mission. I want to thank Executive Secretary Patrick Minutillo for his hard work as the Editor of our fantastic magazine. I would also like to thank our Executive Vice President and Gala Chairman Ron Sepe for the hard work done by he and the Gala Committee to make tonight's event a huge success. I would also like to thank our Executive Director Vincent Nardone for his hard work in making this Annual Journal another tremendous success.

The success of the Italian American Police Society of New Jersey is contingent on the support of people like you. I am blessed to have the greatest Executive Board in the world and for that I am truly thankful. I am honored for the privilege of serving as your President and look forward to another very successful year! Let us take a moment this evening to offer our thoughts and prayers for the men and women in blue who made the ultimate sacrifice this past year. Thank you for attending and please enjoy this very special evening.

Enjoy your evening,

On behalf of the entire membership of the Italian American Police Society of New Jersey, I would like to welcome you to another wonderful evening. Tonight we honor three special people who have made a difference in Law Enforcement and the Italian American Community:

Joseph Sanzari, who, like my grandfather, started with a pickup truck and a wheelbarrow, now has one of the largest construction companies in New Jersey. He selflessly gives to his employees and the community, especially our NJ law enforcement community.

Chief Phyllis Bindi, who I had the pleasure working with many times while I was at the Essex County Prosecutor's Office. She is a brilliant supervisor and always a person you can count on and is making a difference in East Orange.

Undersheriff Jessica Plumeri has not only worked in many aspects of the Mercer County Sheriff's Office but has had numerous assignments at the Mercer County Prosecutor's Office working undercover.

Please take the time to read through this booklet, support our advertisers and join us or volunteer at our upcoming events. Without the support of the membership and associate membership of the Italian American Police Society, many of these events are not possible. I thank the friends who supply financial support and I thank all of you who have participated in helping this organization be one of the best fraternal organizations in the state of New Jersey.

Last year we started our Cars for Cops Program. With the help of Jack Schulz and Frank Trama, over $10,000 has been raised by the donation of used cars and trucks. I would personally like to thank them tonight.

I thank the Membership of the Italian American Police Society along with President Schievella for letting me serve as your Executive Director for another great year. Thanks to Vice President Ron Sepe for putting this event together. God Bless America and the Italian American community!

Good Evening Honorees, Distinguished
Guests, Members, and Friends,

On behalf of the Executive Board of the Italian American Police Society of New Jersey, I would like to extend a warm welcome to our 2018 Annual Gala Benefit Dinner Dance. It is my honor and pleasure to once again serve tonight as your Dinner Dance Chairman. Tonight, it is our pleasure to recognize some of New Jersey's most prominent Italian American citizens, Mr. Joseph Sanzari, Chief Phyliss Bindi, and Undersheriff Jessica Plumeri who we feel, have distinguished themselves through their outstanding contributions, dedication, and sacrifice in their professional, civic and personal lives. We thank you for joining us as we recognize these special individuals.

Tonight, we are here to honor our honorees, but I want to also recognize and honor the dedicated men and women in law enforcement, that are here with us tonight. It is with mixed emotions that the number of law enforcement officers killed in the line of duty dropped sharply in 2017, marking the second-lowest toll in more than 50 years. The number of deaths decreased by 10% from 2016, but this is one of those good-news, bad-news situations, because 128 officers still made the ultimate sacrifice. Please keep the families of these fallen heroes in your thoughts and prayers. We can honor their memory, by proudly wearing your badge each day and performing your duties in a fair, impartial and professional manner. To my brother and sister officers, you are entrusted with a tremendous responsibility to keep us safe each and every day, but please do not forget the responsibility you have to also come home safe to your families as well.

The Executive Board would like to thank the Management and Waite staff of the Fiesta for your many years of outstanding service and excellent food. The dinner dance committee along with the Fiesta staff has worked hard to ensure that you have another fabulous evening.

I would also like to thank President Bill Schievella, the Executive Board, and all the members of the Italian American Police Society for the time, effort and support they extend throughout the year to make us New Jersey's premier fraternal police organization.

Again, thank you for your support and I hope you enjoy the evening.

Chief Phyllis Bindi

East Orange PD

Chief Phyllis Bindi made history at the East Orange Police Department in January of 2017 when she obtained the rank of Chief of Police; the first female to ever be promoted to this position in the City of East Orange. She also made history in September 2016, when she was the first female ever promoted to the rank of Deputy Chief in the City of East Orange Police Department. The Chief has been leading a Department of nearly 200 sworn personnel for 2 years now, in a densely urban City that borders the largest City in the state.

Chief Bindi was first sworn in as an Officer in 1991 and during her 26+ year career in law enforcement has served in multiple units while rising through the ranks to now lead a Department that is recognized as the leader in technology-led, real time policing. Chief Bindi was promoted to the rank of Sergeant in 2002 and assigned to the Enhanced Community Safety Team, which was responsible for suppressing all street-level crime, with an emphasis on narcotics and gang-related crimes. Shortly after her successful stretch as supervisor of the Safety Team, Chief Bindi was then promoted to Lieutenant in April of 2006 when she was assigned as the Commander of the Safety Team, before becoming responsible for the Field Training Unit, which monitored and mentored all new officers. As commander of the Field Training Unit, Chief Bindi was instrumental in shaping the mindset of the new officers, teaching them the objectives and goals of the department, officer safety, and how to be the best officer. In 2012, she was promoted to Captain and was designated as the Tour Commander of the evening patrol division. Chief Bindi, as the commander, reduced crime for four consecutive years on the busiest of all patrol tours; which is also historically plagued with violent crime. Due to her success on the evening tour and the crime reduction she achieved, Chief Bindi became the first Special Operations Coordinator, responsible for all of Operations including but not limited to patrol, investigative, and intelligence units.

Over her impressive and successful law enforcement career, Chief Bindi has been the recipient of multiple awards and recognitions for bravery and operational excellence from various local and state associations. She has been an integral part in the East Orange Police Department's change in culture by facilitating a proactive as opposed to reactive police department, decreasing crime by over 75% over the past 15 years, and making the City a safer place to live and conduct business in. Her success throughout her career, dedication to the community and its' members, and to the personnel within the police department, is what Chief Bindi prides herself on, and allows her to remain a role model for the nearly 25% female contingency within the Department.

Some of Chief Bindi's accolades include the Trailblazer Award presented to her by the National Organization of Black Women in Law Enforcement, Inc. (NOBWLE), the Glenn D. Cunningham Law Enforcement Award presented by the Hoboken Branch NAACP for her outstanding leadership in the field of Law Enforcement.

Undersheriff Jessica Plumeri

Mercer County Sheriff's Office

Born in Trenton and raised in both Trenton and Hamilton Township, New Jersey, Jessica Plumeri graduated from Hamilton High North (Nottingham) in 1990 and attended Mount Saint Mary's University in Emmitsburg, Maryland. Jessica graduated in 1994 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology with a concentration in Criminal Justice.

After college, she was hired as a Detective with the Mercer County Prosecutor's Office. After graduating from the New Jersey Division of Criminal Justice Academy, Jessica was assigned to the Grand Jury, Trial and Megan's Law Units. As her career progressed, she was assigned to the Prosecutor's Special Investigations Unit where she began her passion for investigations involving the illegal distribution of narcotics.

While learning on the job with the Prosecutor's Office, Jessica continued to advance her knowledge and skills by completing the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) Basic Narcotics School, "Top Gun" Narcotics School and the REID Basic Interrogation Course. Jessica continued to advance her knowledge by attending many additional seminars and classes with the FBI, DEA and various state and local law enforcement agencies. Jessica also completed the New Jersey Division of Criminal Justice Physical Training Course and is certified by the Police Training Commission as a certified New Jersey Physical Training instructor. Jessica utilized this training as an instructor at the Mercer County and New Jersey Division of Criminal Justice Police Academies.

In 1999, Jessica entered the graduate program in education at The College of New Jersey (TCNJ). She attended classes at night and in 2001, she graduated with her Masters of Arts Degree in Teaching.

Shortly after earning her Master's degree, Jessica decided it was time for a change and new challenges. In 2002, Jessica was hired by the Hopewell Township School District as a second grade teacher. She loved being a teacher and working with children. It did not take the community long to appreciate her love of teaching. In 2010, Jessica received the Teacher of Year Award from the Hopewell Township Board of Education.

While teaching was a rewarding and fulfilling experience, there was still something missing. After much thought, Jessica realized her true passion in life was law enforcement, and she returned to the Mercer County Prosecutor's Office. As a returning law enforcement officer, Jessica had to complete training at the New Jersey Division of Criminal Justice Academy. Once again, her passion for law enforcement was evident and upon completion of her training in 2011, she received the Police Training Commission Distinguished Recruit Award.

Upon returning to the Mercer County Prosecutor's Office, she was assigned to the Trial Unit, assisted in homicide investigations and returned to the unit that was her true passion, Special Investigations, whereby she served as a member of the Mercer County Narcotics Task Force. As a detective in the Special Investigations Unit, Jessica participated in over 3000 narcotics investigations, 300 of which were undercover investigations. These investigations involved the distribution of narcotics and guns with the Mercer County Narcotics Task Force, the DEA, FBI, United States Marshal's Service, the New Jersey State Police and various state and local agencies in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and New York. Jessica again completed advanced training and became a certified undercover officer through a prestigious program hosted by the New Jersey State Police and FBI. In addition to being an instructor at the Mercer County Police Academy and the Division of Criminal Justice Academy, she also instructed at the Undercover Narcotic Investigative Training School (U.N.I.T.) hosted by the New Jersey Office of the Attorney General.

During her law enforcement career, Jessica has received numerous awards from the Mercer County Prosecutor's Office, the Drug Enforcement Administration and local and state law enforcement agencies. This includes, in 2001, when she received the West Windsor Police Department Certificate of Excellence for an undercover operation that benefited the entire community. Jessica has also assisted the DEA as an undercover officer resulting in the seizure of large amounts of narcotics.

In 2016, Mercer County Sheriff John A. Kemler appointed her Undersheriff. As Undersheriff of the Mercer County Sheriff's Office, Jessica is responsible for the Mercer County Sheriff's Office Trenton-Mercer Airport Division, Policy Development and Training, Court Security, and numerous other essential duties related to warrant services and the capture of fugitives.

Jessica is an avid runner and has completed the New York City marathon on three occasions and will participate in the Police Unity Tour in 2018. She resides in Lawrence Township with her daughter Nina and her son Sam.

Challenged Athletes Foundation's (CAF) Operation Rebound - New Jersey Racing Team program is the premier sports and fitness program for American military personnel, veterans and first responders with physical challenges. It provides unparalleled opportunities to pursue active, athletic lifestyles by offering access to funding for equipment and training and competition expenses, Military Medical Center Physical Training (MMCPT) and sports clinics.

Our team is comprised of members that suffer from PTSD, debilitating amputations, and paralysis. Our team is fully committed to assist our members meet and exceed their goals. A majority of these elite level athletes are competing to qualify for the Paralympics, national, and world competitions in their sports.

This year our team is participating in a twenty two hour "veteran suicide awareness", ruck march on the Wildwood Boardwalk. All donations collected will be used to help our veterans with PTSD treatment and other medical needs.

We rely on volunteers and support from Military, Police, and Fire organizations. As of right now we have the full support of organizations such as the NJ State VFW, NJ State American Legion, NJ State FMBA, NJ State PBA, NJ FOP, and numerous other clubs and organizations.

The most important contribution that you can make is joining the team. Currently, we have disabled athletes throughout the state and they are in need of motivated people to act as training partners and mentors

If you are interested in joining the team by assisting members and/or participating in events, please contact me at mbollie@optonline.net or (973)332-1556. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Since all of our donations go directly to our athletes, we would prefer that anyone interested in donating to the organization to please contact us first. This would give us the opportunity to discuss the best way your donations can provide our athletes a better way of life.
